The Private Lives of POTUS past and present (POTUS = President Of The United States)

Ever since George Washington, the very first US President, there have always been rumours about the insatiable 'appetites' of the most powerful men in the world. Now, for the first time, the stories of all the presidential scandals (alleged or proven) have been brought together in one book by respected journalist and author, Nigel Cawthorne, for the reader to make up their own mind.

These are extraordinary tales of hushed-up affairs, the women involved (including Stormy Daniels, Monica Lewinsky, Marlene Dietrich, Audrey Hepburn and Marilyn Monroe) – and the reactions of the First Ladies too.

There was a president from Hollywood who behaved like Harvey Weinstein; there was the exhibitionist president; two presidents who regarded the White-House typing pool as their private harem; the president who gave drugs (including amyl nitrate) to secretaries; presidents who frequently visited prostitutes; presidents besotted with very young women – and let's not forget the story of one recent president who got drunk and danced naked.

There are presidents featured in this book whose sexual misconduct is already legend – but readers will be startled to discover there are also shocking tales from the least expected presidents too. An eye-opening read!

Do First Ladies always know what is 'going on' with their husbands? # Who were the biggest cheats? Democrats or Republicans? # When should a president's private life become a legitimate matter of public interest?

About the author: Nigel Cawthorne is a former Financial Times journalist and author. His books include both fiction and non-fiction. Nigel Cawthorne was invited to testify before US Congress to provide evidence based on his research for a previous book, and has been interviewed on TV and radio news programmes, as well as in the press. He lives in Bloomsbury, London and is available for interviews and comment.

*#MeToo hashtag started trending on social media in October 2017 as a reaction to the accusations against Harvey Weinstein. Women used the hashtag to indicate that they too had, at some point in their lives, been a victim of sexual abuse.
